Evangelist Plans to Warm Up to Sermon, 'Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock,' Delegations Make Good Showing; 54 Hit Sawdust Trail

Disappointment was written all over Billy Sunday's countenance last evening. And at times it seemed that an expression of discouragement crept over his face. Little wonder! Billy Sunday worked last night. He worked as strenuously as the night before. But despite everything he could not get the audience to answer his appeals. The people refused to throw themselves open and receive his sermon. There was no spirit manifested. The sermon was not so stirring as others he has preached. But it was thrilling enough to move even the hardened ones had they allowed themselves to be moved. Instead they fought it back. Every time Billy Sunday started to preach ahead, they charged and fought him off.

The number of converts was the smallest of any at a night service. Only 54 responded to the invitation and most of them were secured through the efforts of personal workers.

Sunday Shows Disappointment

Sunday plainly showed his disappointment during the after service. He talked but little while the invitation was being extended. It was then he appeared to be discouraged. He had tried his best and failed.

In his closing prayer, the evangelist told of his disappointment. He prayed that his sermon would be taken home and would compel the attention of every sinner who heard it all day today and tomorrow and the next day until they were made to realize what it meant. He prayed that the sermon would spring up in the house and in the place of business and compel the sinner to stop his work and think of the vital message it contained.

"There are hundreds here tonight who should come, Lord," he prayed. "Make them come tomorrow night. Show them the error they are making. Lord, and make them see the light." In the same prayer Sunday made the first mention of the close of the campaign. The days are becoming fewer and though the campaign is just starting another second has just begun.

In the beginning it seemed that the service would be one of the most enthusiastic of all those held. Several delegations were present; the crowd appeared to be full of life and matters seemed to be running smoothly. Something broke the spirit, however.

Four Hundred From East Side

The East Side delegation was the first to arrive. Led by the Salvation Army band, it marched into the tabernacle about 200 strong. Then came the Pueblo delegation, about 250, and led by the Rev. George A. Henderson, and last the Missionary alliance, a colored delegation of about 100 people.

Chorister Rodeheaver started the ball rolling. He first called on the East Siders. They responded with a verse; then a small boy was raised up on the shoulders of one of the men and recited a verse of welcome to Billy Sunday, at the conclusion of which the entire delegation gave a rousing cheer for the evangelist. Then the boys and girls who have organized a prayer

Delegations at First Presbyterian Church Will Be Held Daily Through Sunday

Nearly 200 delegates from all over the state are here for the first session of the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Colorado Christian Endeavor union in the First Presbyterian church last night, and listened to addresses of welcome and encouragement for the work the convention is to do.

The visiting delegates are only the vanguard of those who will come to this city today and tomorrow. And the rolls of the convention when completed will include about 500 visitors. Many of these will come from Denver tomorrow to be present for the 22 days of the last two days. The Christian Endeavor union in all its branches in the state includes 300 societies and 12,000 members. The largest single society, the one in the Presbyterian church in Canon City, has a membership of 112.

The sessions of the convention are being held in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church, and the following sessions will be held:

NEW YORK HAS A $30,000,000 BANKRUPTCY

Claffin Stores Fail in Worst Affair in History of the United States

MANY STORES ARE INVOLVED Morgan Refused Gigantic Loan to Save Firm; Receivers Are Appointed

DENVER, June 25.—W. P. Coleman was appointed receiver for the Jorlin Dry Goods company, one of the H. B. Claffin company's stores late today, by District Judge Allen, on the application of J. M. Stahl, vice president, and Calvin C. Carpenter, treasurer of the Jorlin Dry Goods company. Mr. Coleman is the credit man of the company.

Liabilities are placed at $30,000,000 in Claffin company's paper and $50,000,000 in the hands of the creditors. The assets are placed at approximately $20,000,000.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The biggest mercantile failure in the history of the United States was precipitated today when receivers were appointed for H. B. Claffin company of this city. The company, it is estimated, owes more than $30,000,000, which at the present time, it is unable to pay. Its assets are said to be $44,000,000.

John Claffin, owner of the company, and its chief individual stockholder, is the owner of a chain of nearly 30 other dry goods enterprises throughout the country which are involved in the failure. Receivers for several of these were named today and similar action was announced would be taken in the case of the rest. Their business will be continued under receivers' management until their financial affairs have been adjusted.

From 3,000 to 5,000 banks in all parts of the United States compose the bulk of the Claffin creditors. They hold notes aggregating the major part of the liabilities. These notes are said to have been issued by the various Claffin stores, endorsed by H. B. Claffin company, and the proceeds used when discounted in financing their needs.

The United Dry Goods company, a $1,000,000 corporation, financed several years ago by J. P. Morgan & Co., to take over other Claffin interests, is not involved in the failure. Neither is the Associated Merchants company, owned by the United Dry Goods company, and which in turn owns one-half of the H. B. Claffin company and a number of other large stores, principally in New York.

Bliss Succeeds Claffin

Mr. Claffin, who was president of both the dry goods and Associated Merchants companies, resigned those positions today, and it is understood that when the H. B. Claffin company is reorganized its connection with both the former companies will be permanently severed.

Cornelius N. Bliss, son of the late New York dry goods merchant of that name, was elected to succeed him.

According to Mr. Claffin, the failure was due to the unprecedented shifting of trade centers in New York city, which compelled the concern to relocate its business.

SALEM, HISTORIC TOWN OF WITCHES, NEARLY DESTROYED BY FIRE THAT SWEEPS THE CITY

Blaze Started on Gallows Hill and Hundreds of Homes and Many Factories Burned

SALEM, Mass., June 25.—Nearly half the "witch city" of Salem, rich in historical buildings and traditions, was devastated today and tonight by a fire that caused an estimated loss of $5,000,000, destroyed one thousand buildings, including a score of manufacturing establishments, and made 10,000 of the 45,000 residents homeless.

The fire was believed to be under control at a late hour tonight. Starting at 2 o'clock as the result of an explosion in the Korn-Leather company plant, the flames spread in all directions, defying all efforts of the firemen.

At 11 o'clock tonight all the historic and literary landmarks had escaped destruction. These included the Peabody museum, Essex institute, old custom house, where Nathaniel Hawthorne did much of his literary work, and "The House of the Seven Gables," made famous by the novelist.

Several buildings were dynamited and late tonight it looked as though the fire had been checked. No fatalities had been reported up to midnight, but in the confusion it was impossible to determine the casualties. Some 50 injured persons were received at the hospitals.

Thousands of the homeless were camped on Salem common tonight and the city was policed by militiamen. Block after block was dynamited but the fire checked in one direction was driven by shifting winds into new paths of destruction.

At the start the water pressure was low and when the fight became desperate, a great water main near Beverly bridge broke, leaving the firemen practically helpless. Meanwhile calls for assistance were rushed to nearby cities and an enormous quantity of apparatus responded only to find that there was no water to check the progress of the flames.

Started on Gallows Hill, where alleged witches were hanged 200 years ago, the fire spread quickly through

MOYER'S LIFE IS THREATENED; 3 IN HELLENA JAIL

FEAR GUNMEN OF RIVAL UNION RESPONSIBLE

Vigilantes at Butte After Mayor's Scalp; City Is Quiet Now

HELENA, Mont., June 25.—Police and sheriff's officials are convinced that gunmen from Butte are in Helena for the purpose of assassinating Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who fled from Butte during the rioting in the city Tuesday night. Three suspects were placed under arrest here and locked up in the county jail and the police and sheriff's forces are endeavoring to locate a fourth.

Moyer is being closely guarded by sheriff's deputies and by members of the "refugee colony" of Butte miners who accompanied him to Helena.

The federation president was advised by friends in Butte that men had left for Helena to attack him and throughout the day he kept close to his hotel. Once when he left to go to a telephone exchange, he was followed by the three men who were quickly arrested.

Watching the Capitol

It was rumored during the afternoon that two suspicious characters kept careful surveillance of the state capitol, where it was reported Moyer was in conference with the governor.

Members of the "refugee colony" asserted that they received today a delegation of local federation men who came over from Butte to secure advice from Moyer as to whether or not they would make another attempt to revive the organization in Butte.

Moyer, it was stated, advised them to keep the union alive and the delegation in rapid return to Butte determined to make another effort to assemble Butte Miners union No. 1.

BUTTE, Mont., June 25.—This city after two days of riots, spread more than a week apart and caused by internal strife in the local union of Western Federation of Miners, showed no remarkable conditions today. All mines were working, and the saloons which had been ordered closed after the riots of Tuesday, went on a 24-hour basis once more.

Progress was made in organizing a committee of citizens as vigilantes. As the men entered the room, where the first meeting was held, their descriptions and names, if known, were taken by men reported to be connected with the new union.

No statement was issued by the committee, which in the future, will work in secret. The chairman of the meeting prior to the assembling of the committee announced that as soon as organization was completed, the first step would be a legal one aimed at Mayor Duncan, whose removal from office will be demanded on charges that he permitted the recent rioting. The discharge of the police force in a body also may be asked.

Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, telegraphed from Helena where he is resting after his hasty departure from Butte, that he will speak to the mill and smeltermen in Anaconda tomorrow night.

It is reported that Mr. Moyer, if he goes to Anaconda, 30 miles from Butte, will be met by a delegation of men who opposed him in Butte. The Anaconda mine officials said they had not asked their general president to speak, but that he would be granted a hearing.

The newly organized independent union of miners announced that its first regular meeting will be held next Tuesday. The union announced that more than 1,000 miners had signed for membership.

President Predicts Greatest Boom in History When Legislation Passes

"TIME FOR DELAY IS PAST" Goes Into History of Attack on Trusts and Criticizes Predecessors

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Under a new constitution of freedom for business, given by anti-trust legislation soon to be passed by congress, President Wilson today promised the country the greatest boom in its history.

This was the president's final answer to the opponents of trust legislation at this session of congress and to prospects of cool times, delivered with determined expression and with a knowledge of what he was doing, said Mr. Wilson, "we purpose to do it under the advice, for we have been fortunate enough to obtain the advice of men who understand the business of the country, and we know that the effort is going to be exactly what the effect of the currency reform was, a sense of relief and security."

The president spoke to a group of Virginia editors in the East room of the White house, but his assurances were intended for the country. A military aide in full dress uniform, stood beside him and there was every indication that the speech was meant to be one of the most important of the administration. News of the failure of the H. B. Claffin company in New York had reached the White house earlier in the day, but the president did not mention the incident.

Recognizes Value of Press

The speech in full follows: "I think it is appropriate in referring you to say just a word or two in assistance of your judgment about the existing conditions. You are largely responsible for the state of public opinion. You furnish the public with information and in your editorial work you are in the presence of a business situation which is variously interpreted."

"Here in Washington, through the bureau of commerce and other instrumentalities that are at our disposal, and through a correspondence which comes in to us from all parts of the nation, we are perhaps in a position to judge of the actual condition of business better than those can judge who are at any other single point in the country. And I want to say to you that as a matter of fact, the signs of a very strong business revival are becoming more and more evident from day to day."

Business Apprehensive

"I want to suggest, then, to you, business has been in a feverish and apprehensive condition for more than 10 years; I will not stop to point out the time at which it began to be apprehensive, but during more than 10 years business has been the object of sharp criticism in the United States, a criticism growing in volume and growing in bitterness as the volume of natural consequences increased business has been growing more and more anxious. Business men have acted as some men who fear they will have to undergo an operation and who are not sure that when they get on the table the

PROGRESSIVES THWART PLAN TO SELL OUT TO INTERESTS; WIN BIG VICTORY AT DENVER

Temple Not Reinstated as Secretary and Stocker Forced to Quit; Cause Charges Attempt to Buy Douglas County Com- mittee for $5,000; I. N. Stevens Beaten

Special to The Gazette.
DENVER, June 25.—The coal and sugar interests went down to defeat today at the meeting of the state central committee of the Progressive party, but they did not give up without a struggle. Hours of heated debate preceded the committee vote of 25 to 14, by which the corporation attempts to capture the Progressive organization were frustrated.

At one time James H. Causey accused the coal companies of trying to buy the Douglas county central committee with $5,000. At another time E. P. Costigan reaffirmed the reports that I. N. Stevens had offered to smooth over the friction within the party if he would be given the party nomination for United States senator.

C. P. Dodge, state chairman, and Benjamin E. Griffith, chairman of the state executive committee, guided the course of the regular Progressives through the breakers which Dr. C. E. Fisher of Sterling and John Gratton, formerly state senator from Jefferson county, placed in the path of Progressive harmony.

Causey was the man who, by his of the interests was made in his belated fight, irretrievably defeated those within the party who would have sold out to the interests. It was Causey, Fisher was the issue. The issue was for sterner stuff. It was to place the Progressive party on record of pledging itself to support a policy of law and order without justice, as renouncing the national program of dealing with public utilities, and to defeat the candidacy of Costigan.

Fight on Credentials

The opening fight was upon credentials. A great number of proxies were in the hands of the party's enemies. They had been received by Acting Secretary A. S. Lee and it was he who suggested that the executive committee be constituted a credential committee. Instantly Dr. Fisher, the mouthpiece for the opposition, was on his feet and the contest started. Many proxies were in the hands of the Fisher crowd, upon which no contest would have been made on an ordinary roll call. Allison Stocker protested that as county chairman he had not signed the credentials of the Rev. William Frye and S. E. Strang, which were read as delegates from Denver. He maintained that they therefore were not accredited delegates. This in spite of the fact that the two names had been certified by unanimous vote of the county organization. Marie G. Dwyer of Denver earned the credit of administering the first defeat to the interests by a strong denouncing of Stocker. The credentials committee reported and the entire Denver delegation was seated, while many proxies were thrown out.

Resolutions That Were Adopted

Resolved by the state central committee of the Progressive party of Colorado in special meeting assembled this 25th day of June, 1914, that the state central committee of the Progressive party realize fully that under the primary law of the state of Colorado, it is without authority to bind the candidates or members of the Progressive party to a party platform which, under the primary law, is required to be written by the candidates hereafter to be selected by the people in the Progressive primaries.

Be it further resolved that we declare the following to be the sense of the state central committee:

"That we condemn and declare our unalterable opposition to lawlessness, violence and insurrection in any and every form and by whomsoever committed and pledge ourselves to the firm establishment of complete and impartial maintenance of law and orderly government in every part of Colorado. We deny the right of any to wage private war and denounce the same as intolerable and declare that all controversies must be settled without violence."

And be it further resolved that with the same fidelity we declare our devotion to political, social and industrial justice as defined by the Chicago national platform and the Colorado state platform of 1912.

Our opposition to "Invisible Government," and our determination to write into the laws and practice of this state the doctrine that society's rights and a general welfare are supreme, and that while inviting voters of every past political faith to join with us in our contest for wiser and more economical governmental condition, in line with our declared principles, we reaffirm past declarations opposing fusion with any other political party, and declare our opposition to the nomination in Progressive primaries of men or women not recognized as true Progressives.

TEDDY RULES OUT ALL FUSION INFAS

Repudiates Whitman and Will Not Deny He Will Be Candidate

ROSEBAX, N. Y., June 25.—Theodore Roosevelt and his leading associates today finally settled questions which it is felt will decide the fate of the Progressive party in New York state this fall. After it was all over Colonel Roosevelt made a statement setting forth their decisions. Here are the main points:

There will be no fusion in New York state.

A straight Progressive ticket will be put in the field.

District Attorney Charles S. Whitman of New York, who has been talked of as a candidate nominee of both the Republican and Fusion parties, was repudiated by Colonel Roosevelt.

Colonel Roosevelt's nomination for the governorship is being urged upon him by virtually all the Progressive leaders, in spite of his repeated statement that he would not run. The leaders said they still had hopes. Today the colonel declined to deny again that

ZACATECAS SCENE OF ONE OF WORLD'S GREATEST BATTLES

Federals Hounded In and All Escape Cut Off; Explosions Kill Hundreds

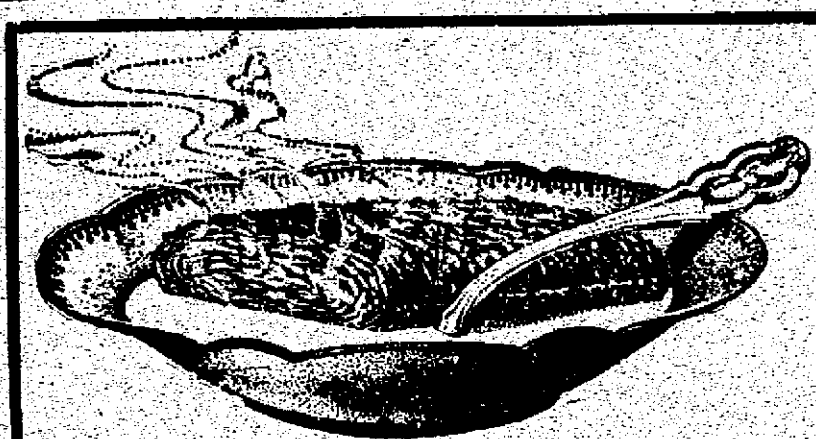

ZACATECAS, Zac. Mexico, June 24. (Delayed) Over military forces from the United States and Mexico, according to official estimates made today, between 13,000 and 14,000 federals defended the city, while the Constitutionalists, though numbering about 15,000, could employ little more than one-half their number in the attacks of four days, which resulted yesterday in victory for the Villa troops, the taking of hundreds of prisoners and mutilations, and the demoralized retreat of the remnants of General Barron's army.

Benjamin Arguendo and Antonio Rojas, former Orizaba rebel leaders but now generals of federal irregular troops, were killed last Saturday in action on the outskirts of Zacatecas, according to an official announcement from General Villa's headquarters today.

It was asserted by leaders here that the last act of General Barron was to blow up the buildings in which Attorney Magallanes lived. He, his wife and eight children perished. The youngest child, who was out on an errand, returned to find the demolished house, and the bodies of his parents, brothers and sisters.

Many Killed in Explosion. The street fighting in Zacatecas was the most severe of the revolution. The federals fought from street to street, from house to house, and many Constitutionalists paid with their lives for their bravery. Many of the federals threw away their uniforms and began slipping invaders. Those who pleaded guilty of this offense were shot after being captured. The federals, already on the retreat, blew up a mine in the customs house without warning their women and children of their intention. Many Constitutionalists who had entered the building also were buried in the wreck of the three-story structure.

By sundown Tuesday the federals had been routed completely. How many of them escaped has not been learned. Since the city had been completely surrounded, the number cannot be great.

operation will not be a capital operation. As a matter of fact as the diagnosis has progressed it has become more and more evident that no capital operation was necessary; that at the most a minor operation was necessary to remove admitted distempers and evils. The treatment is to be constitutional rather than surgical, affecting habits of life and action which have been harmful. For on all hands it is admitted that there are processes of business in this country which ought to be corrected but the correction has been postponed and in proportion to the postponement the fever has increased the fever of apprehension.

Mustn't Keep Them Guessing.

"There is nothing more fatal to business than to be kept guessing from month to month and year to year whether something serious is going to happen to it or not and what in particular is going to happen to it if anything does. It is impossible to forecast the prospects of any line of business unless you know what the year is going to bring forth. Nothing is more unfair, nothing has been declared by business men to be more harmful, than to keep them guessing.

"The guessing went on, the air was full of interrogation points for 10 years and more. Then came an administration which for the first time had a definite program of constructive correction, but of a constructive correction of admitted evil—a very clear program, disclosed so far as possible, in a general program in its particulars, as well as in its general nature. And the administration proceeded to carry out this program.

"Tariff Medicine Not Bad."

First there was the tariff and business shivered. The tariff, like to go in, the water looks cold, but when the tariff had been passed it was found that the readjustment was possible without any serious disturbance whatever. The men said with a sense of relief, 'Well, we are glad to see that behind us and it wasn't bad after all.'

"Then came the currency reform. You remember with what resistance, with what criticism, with what systematic holding back, a large body of bankers in this country met the proposals of that reform, and you know, immediately after its passage, they recognized its benefits and its beneficence, and how easy since the passage of the reform, bankers throughout the United States have been congratulating themselves that it was possible to carry out this great reform upon sensible and solid lines.

"Then we advanced to the trust program and again the same dread, the same hesitation, the same urgency, that the thing should be postponed. It will not be postponed, and it will not be postponed because we are the friends of business. We know what we are doing; we purpose to do it under the advice; for we have been fortunate enough to obtain the advice of men who understand the business of the country, and we know that the effect of the currency reform was a sense of relief and of security.

"Because when the program is finished, it is finished. The interrogation points are rubbed off the plate; business is given its constitution of freedom and is bidden go forward under that constitution. And just so soon as it gets that leave and freedom there will be a boom of business in this country such as we have never witnessed in the United States.

Do Not Dare to Delay.

"I, as a friend of business and a servant of the country, would not dare stop in this program and bring on another long period of agitation. Agitation longer continued country, and if this program is delayed there will come agitation with every letter in the word a capital letter. The choice is a sober and sensible program now completed or months upon months of additional conjecture and danger. I, for one, could not ask this country to excuse a policy which subjected business to longer continued agitation and uncertainty; and the reform, I am sure that it is better to have it done in a whole piece, to this country, and by the same token, the people, that a constructive program is at last not only to be proposed but completed, and that when it is completed business can set and will get what it can get in no other way, rest, recuperation and successful adjustment. I cannot get rest if I go send me to bed wondering what is going to happen to me in the morning, but if you send me to bed knowing what the course of business is to be tomorrow morning, I can rest. How much better is certain justice to the men engaged in business.

Will Rush Legislation.

"It is a matter of conscience as well as a matter of large public policy to do what this congress I am now certain is going to do, finish the program. And I do not think that it is going to take a very long time. I believe that the temper of those engaged in this great thing is admirable, that the various elements in antiscocialism in the congress of the United States are drawing together and that we shall witness an early statesmanlike result for which we shall all have abundant reason to be thankful.

During the day the president had received a letter signed by Henry Clark of the House, and all the Democratic representatives from Missouri pleading him their support in his campaign for anti-trust legislation, and promising they would remain in Washington until the program was finished. He replied expressing thanks and appreciation.

the shoe and leather manufacturing district, then south to the Boston and Maine railroad tracks and eastward to the water front.

Late tonight fire brands carried into the business section to the north started a second fire at North street. A little later a tank of the Standard Oil company in the extreme northwest of the city was ablaze, and presently a third fire was leveling the buildings in that vicinity.

The burned buildings include the plants of a score of manufacturing companies, twice as many business places. St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, recently erected at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, the orphan asylum, and more than 200 residences and tenement buildings. Among these residences were colonial homes, which artists have declared to be the finest types of that architecture in the country.

Foreign Colonies Devastated.

The entire section occupied by the Italian and Greek colonies was devastated. Most of the 2,000 persons who had homes in that district were housed temporarily at the Y. M. C. A. building, the state armory, police stations and other public buildings.

All roads leading out of the city were crowded with refugees on foot, in automobiles and all sorts of conveyances. Many carried all they had saved of their household possessions wrapped in sheets and shawls over their heads.

The first spread of the fire was on the west side of the city at the foot of Gallows hill, a territory about two miles long and more than half mile wide. In the meantime falling embers started fires in South Salem and the more exclusive residential part of the city. All the available fire fighting apparatus was in the historic Gallows hill section, where it had responded to a general alarm, and South Salem was left without protection.

Hundreds of Homes Burned.

For several hours the fire in this district was confined to a small area, but as evening approached the flames spread in all directions, destroying hundreds of residences.

The city orphan asylum on Lafayette street, sheltering 150 persons, was destroyed. All the children were taken by the bus to a place of safety. The Salem hospital was the next prey of the flames. The patients were removed to safety on stretchers. In the excitement a daughter was born to Mrs. Rosemary in inmate.

Late tonight brands kindled a fourth fire in the plant of the Salem Oil company in Mason street. A terrific explosion occurred when the oil tanks blew up and a shower of flaming oil fell threateningly on a part of the town that before had not been in imminent danger. The fire, however, was checked after it had destroyed the oil company's plant and thirteen houses.

mainly upon its retail stores in other cities for its profits.

The crash came in the street when it was made by Mr. Claffin to induce J. P. Morgan & Co. and other Wall street banking interests to loan him money to tide over his embarrassment. These bankers, it was learned, advanced the company several million dollars about two weeks ago, but the hundreds of purchasing banks throughout the country continued to press their claims until it became evident that practically the whole $30,000,000 would have to be raised to save the company from failure.

Conference With Morgan.

Mr. Claffin, at a conference lasting until after midnight last night with J. P. Morgan, J. S. Alexander, president of the National Bank of Commerce, Albert H. Wiggin, president of the Chase National bank, and other financiers, made a last appeal, but the decision went against him. The bankers believed that a receivership and a reorganization of the J. E. Claffin company, which would include its separation from the Associated Dry Goods company, was the wisest course to pursue.

At this meeting Mr. Claffin is said to have announced his intention to resign from the two latter concerns. Today John Eames, vice president of H. B. Claffin company, filed a friendly suit in equity against it, alleging that it was unable at present to meet its liabilities. This was admitted by the company, and J. Eames in the federal court was appointed as receiver. Joseph B. Martindale, president of the Chemical National bank, and Frederick A. Juillard, a dry goods merchant.

Creditors File Petitions.

Almost simultaneously a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by the three merchandise creditors, whose attorneys announced they would seek the appointment of other receivers. In this action, subpoenas were issued for Mr. Claffin, Mr. Eames and Dexter N. Forbes, treasurer of the company, to appear and show cause on or before July 2 why it should not be adjudged bankrupt.

Immediate steps to protect the interests of the noteholders and the creditors were taken by the appointment of committees representing each. The noteholder committee, of which J. S. Alexander is chairman, asks that all claims be deposited with them, and a similar request was made in behalf of the merchandise creditors, who were called together by attorneys for the Merchant Protective association. Both the committees announced they would demand a vote in the plans for reorganization.

Still another practical committee, the Creditors Audit and Adjustment association, and the receivers are directed by the court also to organize a creditors committee to be chosen by all the creditors. At this meeting the creditors will be authorized by the court to vote whether the receivership shall be continued and whether other receivers shall be appointed. In fact the court appears to give them practical control of the company's business, subject to the approval of the court.

Fourth Crisis of Company.

The failure today marked the fourth financial crisis of the H. B. Claffin company since it was first established in this city in 1914 with the firm name of Bulfinch & Claffin. It was a financial disaster, during the Claffin years when southern debtors refused to meet their northern obligations, again in the panic of 1907, and again in the panic of 1909, when it was understood that J. P. Morgan & Co. came to the rescue.

From its humble beginning over 70 years ago, the concern grew to be the greater dry goods enterprise in the country, and was the nucleus, together with other enterprises, which John Claffin promoted the Associated Merchants company and subsequently the United Dry Goods company, organized in 1909 with $1,000,000 of capital stock. Its commercial policy, it was remarked through the country, almost as the equivalent of currency, so strong was its credit.

Aviator Flies Over Mount Whitney and Breaks All Records

INDEPENDENCE, Cal., June 25.—Establishing a new American altitude record, Elias Christofferson, the aviator, today flew over the peak of Mount Whitney, the highest mountain in the United States.

His mountain itself is 14,984 feet high. Christofferson's barograph showed he had reached an altitude of 15,728 feet.

Shortly after dawn the aviator made his first attempt, but encountering intense cold at an elevation of 12,000 feet, he had to turn back to Lone Pine.

Starting from there the second time about 10 o'clock he made the flight without difficulty.

On the journey back Christofferson started at Bishop, but was forced to land at Division creek. An automobile was sent out to bring him and his aeroplane into Bishop.

candidacy O. K. Davis, national secretary, this morning urged the organization to stand firm against any sort of fusion.

The committee passed a resolution fixing the appointment of the delegates to the congressional assembly at one for each 100 voters, who voted for Coughlin for governor at the last election, or major fraction thereof, with two delegates at-large.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—With the opening of the debate on the Newlands reclamation bill, the fight began against the administration antitrust program through the senate. # VIOLENCE WILL NOT AMEND STATE LAWS, SAYS G. A. CARLSON but as one interested in the upholding of the honor of the state and the legal rights of both sides. He spoke strongly against the labor agitator, and characterized as unbecomingly the philosophy of violence as a means to an end. Such a policy will gain nothing in the end, he declared, except bloodshed and turmoil. It means a regression to methods thousands of years old.

Would Uphold Laws.
His was an appeal to the thinking people of the state to say that the laws and officials of Colorado shall be upheld, an appeal for an emphatic "no" to those who think they can run the state by force of arms and repeal laws with the rifle.

Mr. Carlson gave a dramatic description of the battle at the Hecla mine and other in Boulder county. He pointed out the fair attitude taken by officials in the matter and proved the satisfaction of some in the audience, at least, that the state officials have been the victims of prejudiced statements in the recent trouble. The speaker brought a message of "work and do" as a remedy for unsettled conditions. He declared the statement characterizing the laboring man as one oppressed and without a chance in this state to be an untruth. He had only to cite the case of himself and four brothers, who came from poor parents, as proof that there is a chance here for all who will work. In short, he said the greater portion of the blame for the violence in the strike to the labor agitator, the man who sits up his fellows to acts of violence.

Deaths and Funerals

Daniel B. Mayhew, aged 77 years, and for the last 12 years a resident of this city, died last night at his home, 111 East Cherokee road. Funeral services will be in charge of the Odd Fellows lodge and definite arrangements will be announced later. He is survived by his widow and a son.

add prohibition against interlocking directors and holding companies, with the trade commission, responsible for the enforcement of the prohibitions. The amendments were referred to the judiciary committee.

Following Dr. Brewster, J. F. Schlotter welcomed the delegates on behalf of the union of the societies in Colorado Springs. and Mrs. J. C. Bruner responded for the delegates from the state at large to the addresses of welcome.

Veteran Members Speak.
The first part of the silver jubilee, celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the organization in Colorado, was then observed by turning the meeting over to Dean Peck of Denver and T. B. Barber of Colorado Springs, both of whom were active in the organization in this city during its early days in this state. Both spoke in reminiscence of the early days.

Dean Peck, who was pastor of the First Methodist church of this city at the time the organization entered Colorado, told of the enthusiasm which swept over the state for it. There were only a few societies in the state but all were large and the one at Dean Peck's church grew in a short time from an average attendance of six or eight to such a membership that an extra room, which seated more than 200 and which was packed at every meeting, had to be constructed for it. This success, he said, was true generally of the Colorado Springs societies. Dean Peck as he expressed it, was "a callow youth then, and little more now." The society at the First Methodist church has always been the Epworth league, but Dean Peck insisted that he still remains as one of its members and that he represented it at the meeting last night.

The Temple Male quartet, each member of which was a delegate to the convocation, sang at the meeting last night. After the program in the auditorium of the church, a reception for the delegates was held in the church parlors.

Mayor Welcomes Delegates.

The address of welcome which Mayor McKesson made to the delegates was as follows:
Colorado Springs congratulates itself upon having the pleasure and honor of entertaining the conference of the Colorado Christian Endeavor union. This conference brings to our city representatives of the best and highest type of young manhood and young resented the Puebloans and sang one song. Afterward the choir sang a song written by a Pueblo man in honor of the visitors.

Sermon Unusually Good.
Sunday's sermon was filled with characteristic sayings and good-wholesome thoughts. His prayer that the thoughts will be taken home and remembered probably will be answered for some of them stuck out so prominently from the sermon that they could not be overlooked or soon forgotten. The sermon also contained several excellent stories, told in that conversational manner only Sunday knows. However, the stories didn't go so well last night. One in particular was noticeable. It was a story of the sorrow of a lost and found father whose wife had just died and whose son insisted on leaving him alone with his grief. Sunday brought tears to his eyes in telling it, but the crowd twisted the tale around until it appeared comical and then laughed at it. The story was really excellent and was so vivid as to stir anyone. It merely goes to show what odds the evangelist was forced to work against last night.

In illustrating his point that God asks gratitude, but will not come unless invited, Sunday told a little story of two.

"Suppose just suppose, for I wouldn't think of doing it—I should drop into your house tomorrow noon. You wouldn't be at home, so I would make myself comfortable and await your coming. Soon you would walk in cal members of the society have decorated the room with red and white, the colors of the society, and with American flags and flowers. The pulpit has been draped in flags, and a large banner has been raised in the front of the church and caught up with the Christian Endeavor monogram.

DELEGATES TO C. E. CONVENTION MEET IN OPENING EXERCISES

Society Adopts Slogan.
The meeting last night was largely one of preparation for the work of the convention which will be taken up today. It was opened with devotional exercises, led by the Rev. Samuel Garvin, who gave the delegates the slogan, "The Christian Endeavor Society, the Soul Winners of the Church," and told them, "Our call is to the unsaved. That is your business. That is mine." Other catch phrases, embodying the Endeavorers' idea of constant service, were repeated constantly throughout the meeting.

T. B. Barber, speaking of the early days of the organization in Colorado, told the delegates that he considered the keynote of the Christian Endeavor society the society's appeal to the heroic, to willingness to sacrifice and willingness to serve. The Rev. S. R. Brewster, who spoke welcoming the delegates on behalf of the churches of the region, told them that they are doing a work that cannot be duplicated, and doing it as no one else can do it. In closing his address he urged each of them to "be a great message bearer to the young people of your community."

Mayor McKesson, on behalf of the city, made the welcoming speech of the evening. The Rev. Mr. Brewster, speaking for the churches, followed. He closed his welcome with what he said was the latest reason for the churches' welcome to them, the good they will receive while here because of the meetings. Billy Sunday is conducting in the city, characterizing Sunday parties, wisely as the foe of the motor traffic, he said: "He shall instill into you the enthusiasm that shall send you out over the state this fall to help make Colorado dry."

Following Dr. Brewster, J. F. Schlotter welcomed the delegates on behalf of the union of the societies in Colorado Springs. and Mrs. J. C. Bruner responded for the delegates from the state at large to the addresses of welcome.

Three Die in St. Louis From Terrific Heat

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—Three deaths caused by the heat were reported here today. The maximum official temperature was 96.

and after standing dumbfounded for a moment, rush over to me with outstretched arms, saying, 'Who are you? What a surprise. I'm so glad to see you.' Now, you lie. You're not glad to see me. You think I'm a fool to come pushing in so unexpectedly."

Lord Won't Rush In.
Then he drew his lesson. The Lord won't come rushing in any more than I would. You have to invite him.

He told also of taking possession of any house in the region he happened to like without invitation, saying that would be as probable as the Lord entering a sinner's heart without invitation. In telling the story he commented on the fine residences in Colorado Springs, saying:

"Oh, I've been around. In Cascade and Nevada and Wood and Tee-tee—what? (Turning quickly to his party.) Oh, yes, Tee-tee, for you Sunday school teachers feel sorry for you. Well, Jesus, launching into his prayer, 'Make that's not the way to put it. Yes, I guess it is. I feel sorry for you Jesus. Just to think that after all you've done, of all the good you want to do they won't let you Jesus. I can't understand why any man won't let you in, why any man Jesus wants the devil to stay.' But, Lord, keep on knocking. Knock longer and louder. Lord, knock in prosperity and adversity, and keep on knocking and Jesus men say, 'Come in, his invitation.' Then he extended his invitation.

The delegates yesterday afternoon, and was one for church members, a plea for them to live Christian lives that they might lead others to Christ.

womanhood in our state. Their coming will mean inspiration and uplift for us all.

This conference is held at an auspicious time. The city of Colorado Springs and the Pikea Peak region is aroused to unusual fervor and enthusiasm by the preaching of Billy Sunday. The delegates to this conference from all parts of the state will be helped not only by the inspiring addresses to be made during the sessions of the conference, but by the Christian enthusiasm and love of righteousness which they represent to the communities which they represent. An earnestness and a zeal that should result in the uplift of the entire state.

It appears to me that Colorado Springs is an auspicious place in which to hold your silver anniversary. I am persuaded that no more beautiful city could be found to which one could go in celebration of the anniversary of any important event. Here you are surrounded by beauty, grandeur, inspiration. Here you are in the midst of a kind, hospitable, Christian people, whose delight is to entertain and please you.

JAPANESE TREATY IS DEADLOCKED AGAIN
Orientals Claim U. S. Policy Is "Mortifying to People of Japan"

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Japan over the California agitation and Japan's extending over a period of more than a year was published today simultaneously in Washington and Tokyo by agreement of the two governments. It disclosed that a new treaty was discussed as one way of meeting Japan's protest against what her diplomatic correspondence characterized throughout as "essentially unfair and insidiously discriminatory." "Inconsistent with the sentiment of good neighborhood," "abridgement of vested rights," and against provisions of the California law, "mortifying to the government and the people of Japan."

But as late as June 10, two weeks ago, the Japanese ambassador, Viscount Hirota, left with Secretary Bryan "instructions" from the Tokyo foreign office that the projected treaty would tend to create new difficulties. The Japanese government therefore, the note said, was "determined to continue the negotiations looking to the conclusion of a convention on the lines of the project which has been under discussion, but they prefer to recur to the correspondence which were interrupted, and they will now look for an answer to the note handed Mr. Bryan on the 26th day of August last, hoping that in a renewal of the study of the case a fundamental solution of the question at issue may be found."

The Japanese note of Aug. 26 last which Mr. Bryan was now asked to answer concluded as follows:
"The imperial government claims for them (its subjects) fair and equal treat-

THE FRANKLIN CALENDAR

We scarce ever hear of fire in Paris when I was there. I took particular notice of the construction of the houses. The roofs are slate or tile. The walls generally lined with stucco or plaster. The floors of stucco or tile. The floors were of marble or of tile. The floors were of wood. It was oak wood which is not so inflammable as pine.

THIEVES ROB CAMPBELL HOME IN NORTH END

Burglars early yesterday morning broke into the home of Peter D. Campbell, in the 2204 block on North Nevada avenue, stole some articles of clothing and all the small change they could find on the lower floor, and left notes revealing Campbell because they had not been able to find any more money.

The robbery took place after 1:30 o'clock in the morning, as people were awake until that time. The burglars secured entry through the pantry window. They went through several rooms on the lower floor of the house, but apparently were seeking only money, as they overlooked Campbell's watch and some silver tableware. They stole Campbell's shoes and his hat, and what change they could find, and then left unsatisfactory notes because they did not get more money. One of the notes

News of the Courts

Representatives of the district attorney's office yesterday dismissed the case against Harry Runyon, who had been held on a statutory charge, because it developed that he was not the principal offender in the case. They immediately filed a direct information in the county court, however, charging Runyon with contributing to juvenile delinquency.

The Clinton National bank, an Iowa institution, yesterday filed suit in the district court against J. P. Waldron for $500, claimed to be due on a promissory note. The complaint alleges that the note was made May 22, 1908, to Humphrey brothers, and that it was transferred to the plaintiff corporation later.

In the district court yesterday Isaac Mills was granted a divorce from Sarah E. Mills on grounds of cruelty.

Karl Kibbie, who was fined $50 in police court recently for frequenting a disorderly house, yesterday appeared in his case to the county court. Kibbie was arrested at the time of a police raid on a house at 307 South Tejon street. As a result of the raid, he is also held on a direct information in the district court charging him with a statutory offense.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Douman each pleaded guilty before Justice Dunnington, yesterday to charges of assault. They were fined $1 and costs each. Morris Fogel was the complaining witness. He charged them with hitting him with a pitchfork and a shovel.

The case of Alfred Sheldrick against H. A. Lorberg, a damage suit for $200 filed in Justice Dunnington's court Wednesday, has been settled out of court and was dismissed yesterday on payment of costs by the plaintiff. Sheldrick and Lorberg have been dealing in pictures of Billy Sunday and his party, copies of the evangelist's sermons, etc., and Sheldrick claimed that Lorberg, in setting up a business here, was violating an agreement made last February by which he sold his share of the business to Sheldrick and agreed not to engage in the same business again.

Moses Ducho, yesterday recovered judgment in Justice Dunnington's court against the City of Colorado Springs for $300 for flooding his property. Ducho lives at 302 Mesa road, and during recent storms the overflowing of the El Paso canal, which carries irrigating water from Arapahoe to the north and has sent large quantities of water down Mesa road, and has resulted in the flooding of his property. Ducho claimed that the city's conduits near his house were not large enough to carry off the water, and that it backed up on his premises. The city has appealed the case to the county court.

Resolute Given Fight for Honors by Rival Yachts

GLEN COVE, N. Y., June 25.—Resolute had to fight for her yachting honors today, for her cup-class rivals, Defiance and Vanitie, gave her a money race over the greater part of the 33½ mile course in upper Long Island Sound.

It was not until more than half the course had been sailed that the Herreshoff boat assumed the leadership and even then she was forced to fairly fly over the last 10 miles in order to overcome a four-minute time allowance which she conceded to the Defiance. Time allowance cost the Vanitie second place after leading the Defiance at the finish by one minute and 47 seconds.

The Resolute defeated the Defiance by three minutes and 14 seconds and the Vanitie eight minutes and three seconds in corrected time.

CORNELL FAVORITE FOR TODAY'S RACE

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 25.—If local rowing experts and early betting are a criterion to go by, history will repeat itself, tomorrow when the crews of the University of Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Washington and Wisconsin battle for honors at the intercollegiate rowing regatta to be held on the Poughkeepsie course, for Cornell is again the favorite.

Some experts predict that the Ithacans will make a clean sweep of all three events. A number of bets at even money on the field against Cornell were reported tonight.

MEN'S ELK SHOES

The man who is on his feet a great deal appreciates a soft, comfortable shoe that he does not need to "break in."

These shoes have no pretensions of style but when it comes to wear and comfort men—they are right there!

(Ask the man who wears them)

the woman's miserable end. Wagner felt that in her daughter lived as pure and heroic a creature as it ever had been his fortune to meet. His love for her was only intensified by her confession.

In New York the end of the world was brought face to face. Dick Staples was stunned when he found Wagner one day painting from a photograph of the woman he had cast off in his youth. The millionaire had just passed a young girl in the doorway and had remarked upon her beauty to the artist. When he learned that Wagner was doing a portrait of the girl's mother, he received a distinct shock. The following day he summoned Wagner and Elsie to his Fifth avenue home.

His confession was brief and the young people shrank from the sordidness of it. He had been bought off 15 years before. His father had been furiously opposed to the woman. It was either cut loose from her and the child entirely, or forfeit the Staples fortune. Jane—God forgive her!—had gone her way. Now he was in a position to make amends. He stretched out his arms to this radiant young girl, a daughter he could be proud of. She recoiled from him. Then she turned a pleading face to her lover, Wagner understood. Long after they were gone the millionaire remained where they had left him, engulphed in the bitterness of his thoughts.

The film will be shown at the Empress today.

In Bond street, London, there were to be seen some crude artificial roses with the label, "Diamond Tintists." A rose of harsh-toned pink would have a violet center or a brilliant peacock green heart. One of violent mustard was centered with brown, while one of raw scarlet had an orange heart. The futuristic rose has appropriately unnatural leaves with a dark metallic sheen.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

TAKE A GRAPE OF VITIS IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER TROUBLE YOU

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if uric acid is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, is a sign of disease or attended by a sensation of stinging, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Vitis. It is a grape of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous juice is made from the acid of grapes and is a tonic, combined with lithia, and has even used for grave ailments to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to remove the uric acid in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder trouble.

Jad Vitis is inexpensive, it cannot be adulterated, it is a delightful offering, a fruit-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
